

Academic Librarian and Library Media Specialists
Preparing 21st Century Learners

WORKING TOGETHER

Cherie Bronkar- Muskingum University

What we did

- Workshop for K-12 Media Specialists
- Collaborative Wiki
- In-Service for K-12 Faculty

Do you know your local K-12 Media Specialists?

- ◎ Find out who's who
 - K-12 Media Specialists
 - K-12 Principals
- ◎ Make some connections
 - Call or e-mail some local Media Specialist's
 - Discover your movers and shakers
- ◎ Share your concerns of equipping students with 21st Century standards
 - Ask their concerns as well.

Build a hook

- What professors expect your students to know
 - Include professors in your workshop
 - Ask them to bring sample syllabi
- Build on Media Specialists current concerns
 - They wanted back up for implementing 21st Century Standards.
 - Provide ideas and tips for faculty buy-in.

Build CEU's and they will come...

◎ CEU's/Contact Hours

- Contacted local education service center
- Worked with them to develop a workshop proposal

Bring in the Professors

- Reach out for support from the faculty
 - Identify professors who see issues with plagiarism and use e-resources
 - Ask them to be part of your workshop

Bring in the Academic Librarians

- ⦿ Share our experiences
 - How we work with faculty
 - What works for us
- ⦿ Library Instruction
 - What we cover
- ⦿ Introduction to Higher Ed research
 - Library web pages
 - Electronic resources
 - Plagiarism and citation/Academic Integrity

Collaboration via the Wiki

- Introduce a collaboration WIKI at your workshop
- Let them know how the wiki will be used to share new ideas.
- Make sure you add information to the wiki so that it's relevant.
- Offer assessment options via the wiki
- Join our Wiki!
 - <http://12to13.pbworks.com/>

Assessment Tools

- ◎ Assess student's current knowledge of 21st Century learning standards
 - Trails
 - <http://trails-9.org/>
 - Online –multiple choice questions
 - Targets a variety of literacy based skills
- ◎ Assessment of the workshop
 - Workshop evaluations

Results - Wiki

- ◎ Ongoing communication via our Wiki
 - Post and post some more
 - Make sure it's something new
 - Join OLEMA list serve
 - Trails assessment
 - Reminder at the beginning of the year
 - Share end of the year results via the Wiki

Results – In Service

- ⦿ K-12 Faculty in-service
 - Plagiarism
 - Plagiarism policies in Higher Ed.
 - IT issues
 - Blocking
 - Financial issues
 - Free stuff

Continuing Contact

- Yearly session to maintain interest and communication
 - CEU's
 - A flashy new tool and best practices
 - Provide an opportunity for them to share their progress.

For more information please contact me at

cbronkar@muskingum.edu